Permit No. 84-1924.

Chas. E. Nawn.

Izenbeck Bay.

February 4, 1924.

A reservation designated as the Alaska Peninsula Fisheries Reservation having been created by the Executive Order of February 17, 1922, Chas. E. Nawn, whose home office is at Ilwaco, Washington, is hereby authorized to engage in the catching and canning of salmon, clams and crabs for commercial purposes at Izenbeck Bay, within the Port Moller District of the said reservation, during the calendar year 1924, under the following conditions.:

1. That the permittee may operate three salmon traps, of which one is to be located at the western end of the westernmost sand island of the Kodiakoff Group, one on the Cape Glazenap side of the bay, and the other between Strawberry Point and Moffet's Cove; and one beach seine at Cape Leontovich for the capture of salmon.
2. That the pack of red salmon shall not exceed five thousand (5,000) cases, and the total pack of salmon shall not exceed ten thousand (10,000) cases, computed upon the basis of 48 one-pound cans per case.
3. That the permittee may operate on clam beaches in the Izenbeck Bay region and may pack not to exceed five thousand (5,000) cases, computed upon the basis of 48 one-pound cans per case, or their equivalents in "eastern oyster" or "1/2 pound flats" on the basis of total contents of can.
4. That the permittee may also catch and prepare as many deep sea crabs as can be secured.
5. That the permittee shall observe the existing laws and regulations for the protection of the fisheries of Alaska and for the administration of the said reservation (copies of which are attached hereto and the conditions of which are made a part of this permit), as well as those that may hereafter be enacted or promulgated for such purposes.
6. That this permit expires December 31, 1924, is not transferable, and is revocable at any time at the pleasure of the Secretary of Commerce.

J. B. DAVIS

Acting Secretary of Commerce.
